Let's Keep Reducing Drug Use in America

Support H.R. 2829, the Office of National Drug Control Policy Reauthorization Act

Dear Colleague:

We are writing to urge your support for H.R. 2829, the Office of National Drug Control Policy Reauthorization Act, when the House debates the legislation on Thursday.

Since its inception, the Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) has been tasked with improving the lives of all Americans by reducing the presence of drugs in our society. ONDCP is our chief vehicle for producing the results our Nation needs and wants in drug control, and the reauthorization of this office is designed to strengthen its performance.

In addition to reauthorizing ONDCP, H.R. 2829 makes a number of important improvements to the laws governing the federal government's counter-narcotics strategy in order to improve the effectiveness and coordination of federal drug interdiction, prevention and treatment initiatives.

Help make federal drug policy more efficient, effective and accountable in reducing drug use in America. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Tom Davis
